Miss Alma J. Lassiter

Alma J. Lassiter

Dedication

To a lady in the highest sense, who has given of her best to forward growth and progress in our school, who has done much to influence the molding of fine characters, who without hesitation has accepted and executed the administrative responsibilities of our school through most trying experiences; to our most sincere friend, teacher, and administrator, the staff deems it a privilege to dedicate the Ash-Hi-Life.

Message to Students

"There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune; Omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows and in miseries."

Nothing is more truly applicable to the youth of the present generation. Never before have the nation, the state, and the local communities felt a greater responsibility for the proper training and development of the young. In order that the great democratic principles upon which our nation was founded may be maintained, it is necessary that all our young people be given an opportunity in the most pleasant environment to develop the heritage with which they have been endowed. All are not endowed with equal abilities and capacities; it is up to the individual as to what he will become. For the person with ambition and average talent, there is nothing that can stop him.

Your lives are sheltered and protected by your homes and the public schools. You are preparing to enter a different sphere, with added liberties and with added responsibilities. Whether you, upon graduation from high school, go on to college or whether you seek a position and start earning a livelihood, you will be on your own; the responsibility will be yours. We, and I speak for the faculty, hope that your training has and will be such that you can ably fit into the new role in life which awaits you.
